DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1,3, 15,16, 27 and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,238,357 ("Kawaguchi et al.").
3. As regards claims 1, 3, 15 and 16, Kawaguchi et al. disclose all features of the claimed invention. More specifically, Kawaguchi et al. disclose an orthotic foot platform apparatus/orthotic toe spacer (10) comprising inter-digital column/spacers (141, 142, 143, 144) for extending vertically between the toes, the column /spacers being width adjustable for urging laterally apart the adjacent toes that the column/spacer extends between to a defined inter-digital spacing (col. 4, lines 62-64). The columns/spacers having upper and lower generally parallel region. Kawaguchi et al. also disclose one or more interconnecting web structures (2 and 3 in Fig. 4) fixedly attached to and expanding across the upper and lower regions of the columns/spacers relative to one another in a generally parallel configuration to produce a toe channel between the columns/spacers for receiving toes.

As can be read from col. 3, lines 44-45, the columns/spacers are width adjustable to fix inter-digital spacing. Also disclosed is that the columns/spacers includes a pressurizable bladder, note col. 5, lines 4-26.

As to the method in claims 27 and 30, mere use of the device of Kawaguchi et al. anticipates the steps of fitting a foot of a user with an appliance and adjusting the width of the spacers by pressurizing the spacers. Applicant should also not strap (200) which fastens the device to the foot.

Allowable Subject Matter

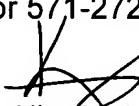

4. Claims 4-14 are allowed.
5. Claims 17-26, 28 and 29 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
